

I am a subscriber to XM Radio and find that I get good value from what I pay each month for this service. Please leave them alone to keep providing a fine service. Let them continue to provide traffic and weather conditions which is a safety issue especially when traveling.